FIFTY BOYS ENJOYING ROTARY SUMMER CAMP AT EDMONTON BEACH

Bright Youngsters from Edmonton Under Chief Supervisor Hustler Having Time of Their Lives—Manley Union Church Holds an Enjoyable Picnic

Thursday, July 2, marked the fourth grand opening of the Rotary Summer Camp at Edmonton Beach. Fifty boys, comprising the first of three groups to be afforded the opportunity of a two-week vacation at the camp, motored out in the afternoon with members of the Rotary club who had so kindly offered their cars in the same generous manner as they are doing all their other good work, towards giving a holiday to those bright little chaps who otherwise would not be able to enjoy one. Everything is running along in apple-pie order, great credit being due to Mr. Hustler, chief supervisor. The boys are happy and loud in their praises of their leader. He is indeed a king of instructors. The chef, who catered at the opening of the Rotary Boys' camp at Edmonton Beach four years ago, is again on the job.

"Yum, yum," the boys say, he sure can cook.

Church Picnic

Edmonton Beach was the scene of a very happy crowd on Wednesday, when Manley Union church held their first picnic at the lake and were very much taken up with their new picnic grounds. Much credit is due to Rev. Mr. Newton, who was the chief organizer. Races and sports of all descriptions took place on the grounds and many prizes were awarded the lucky ones. The prizes were exceptional in value for picnic prizes.
